CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL LIBEL

PULITZER AND OTHER GREAT EDITORS TO BE ARRESTED.

ECHO OF PANAMA CANAL DEAL

Publishers of New York World and Indianapolis Times Indicted by Federal Jury.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Bench warrants were issued today for the arrest of Joseph Pulitzer, Cable M. Van Hemm and Robert H. Lyman of New York, proprietors and editors of the New York World, and for Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams owners of the Indianapolis News, for criminal libel in connection with the publication of charges of irregularities in the purchase of the Panama canal by the United States from the French owners.

The indictments were returned today by the United States grand jury sitting in this city. The warrants are directed against all five of the natural defendants of the two newspapers. The summons requires the corporate defendant (the Press Publishing Company) to appear in court forthwith.

Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, Elihu Root, J. Pierpont Morgan, Charles P. Taft, Douglas Robinson and William Nelson Cromwell are named in the indictments as the persons alleged to have been vilified by the stories.

Hot Shot for President in the New York World.

In a statement issued tonight, the World says in part:

"This prosecution, if it succeeds, will place every newspaper in the country which circulates in Washington—and there are few of importance which do not—circulate there—completely at the mercy of an autocratic president who is willing to prosecute his authority for the gratification of his personal malice."

"Mr. Roosevelt is now abusing his great power as president to exploit his political malice. These libel proceedings have no other object than to enable Mr. Roosevelt to employ the machinery of the United States government to satisfy his personal desire for revenge. We say this reluctantly; but we say it without qualification, because it is true. Mr. Roosevelt is an episode. The World is an institution."

HIP, HURRAH! ADA'S BONDS ARE SOLD

Brings the Cash; Big Public Work To Start Soon.

There was general rejoicing among the members of the city council this morning when intelligence was received from Bolger Company Bond Bankers at Chicago, that it would be agreeable to pay the cash for $71,500.00 of Ada's public utility bond issue. These bond bankers state that their attorneys have passed favorably upon the legality of the issue of such amount of Ada's bonds and that as soon as the proper and regular proceedings attendant to the conclusion of a bond deal had been consummated, that the money would be forthcoming.

City attorney Holt is in the possession of entire instructions relative to the required procedure and now it is known, beyond peradventure, that when the city council has concluded its session next Monday night, that there will then only be required the publication of an ordinance to comply with all the prerequisites essential to the securing of $71,500.00 in money.

The Ada public will doubtless be gratified with the information that the city council can now go before the contracting world with an absolutely cash proposition in payment for the construction of all the proposed public improvements in this city.

Referring that on today's staff

Referring to the promise made the public in the last issue of this paper, that on today there would be published the proposal of contractor Lumsden and city engineer Stokes, to take the entire issue of Ada's utility bonds, provided they should be awarded the contracts to do the work, it will, of course, occur to our readers that the proposals outlined by these gentlemen will be of no interest or value at this time, since the only way that they could possibly get in on the contract now, would be their ability to make good as the lowest and best bidders against the contracting world.

The city council of Ada is to be congratulated by the Ada public for having consummated, under all the circumstances, such an early and favorable by the News man and it was the declaration of each member that, undoubtedly, the press dispatchers from these other cities which had previously secured sale for their bonds were evidently founded upon misapprehension, or else directed with purpose of deception.

Adam Beck, president of the Oklahoma Portland Cement Company, who is very well versed indeed with the manner and detail operations of bond sales, the conditions in general of bond markets, etc., was present at the council meeting, and made the following very satisfactory explanation. Mr. Beck said in substance: "Naturally, press reports from any good city relating to such city's credit, would make as favorable showing as possible, and it is probably true that, as a rule, it appeared that the cities to which press reports referred, did, on its face, sell their bonds at par or even above par value. Since, though the sale of cement to a large number of contractors who are engaged in the work of public utility construction, within the various cities in the southwest, I am absolutely informed that practically, without exception, these boasted advantageous bond sales are generally no more or less than the exchange of their bonds at the face value of whatever they care to name with reputable contractors in return for the construction of the utilities at an agreed price."

Mr. Beck further stated that it was very unusual during the past two years that bond sales had been made at even par value, when cash in hand was required. He suggested at the time, or later, that he considered such proposition as outlined by contractor Lumsden as entirely reasonable. "Of course," said he, "it would be more satisfactory to the city should a cash sale be consummated."

The News mentions the above merely to attest the fact that the city council of Ada has been very diligent in the performance of its duties, and that the citizens generally may well interchange congratulations that a cash sale at such a premium above par value has been consummated. Wherein the bonds only sold at par, still, considering the accrued interests which will probably amount to more than a thousand dollars by this time, and the further fact that the bond buyers contracted all the expense incidental to all legal proceedings required to secure the proper presentation of the bonds, the printing of the same, etc., the city may feel that its trust has been well placed.

ADA LOSES DURANT WINS

Guthrie, Okla., Feb. 18.—Special to News 4:45 P. M.—Ada has met the enemy and she is theirs. Durant won over Ada for state normal late this afternoon at the vote of Durant, 60 and Ada 41.

Durant secured 28 republican votes and Ada 10. C. G. Jones, Ada's boasted republican friend, voted with Durant. It was a straight proposition of the republicans lining up with the insurgents to defeat the House organization.

There is no fear whatever that the bill favoring Durant can get through the Senate since that democratic body will, under no circumstances, accept the House measure for which the republicans are responsible.

Ada will await, with interest, the detailed story from her prominent citizens at Guthrie of the whys and wherefores of Durant's cleaning upon Ada.

Lawton, Ok., Feb. 17.—After passing through many struggles for his life in bloody battle with Mexicans and United States citizens and soldiers and for twenty-two years a prisoner of war, for the most part upon the Fort Sill military reservation, Geronimo, the famous war chief of the Apaches, 80 years old, succumbed to pneumonia, at 5:45 o'clock this morning in the military hospital.

His illness was of less than a week's duration and he was in a critical condition for only about forty-eight hours.

The death of Geronimo has cast a gloom throughout the entire reservation, and, although he had enemies in his tribe during life, they return to mourn at the hour of his death.

As a warrior and General Geronimo had few equals and his career of forty years of blood-thirsty savagery kept the country in continual terror. He never lost hope until the very last moment, still retaining that great will power which caused him often to meet victory.

He said that he would not die until his two children, Eva and Robert, 17 and 19 years old, respectively, who are attending school at the Chilocco Indian School, should arrive at his bedside.

Funeral This Afternoon.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the rites of a Christian burial under the direction of Rev. Legsters, the old chieftain will be put to rest in the Indian burying ground, northeast of Fort Sill, near his own home. Great grief is manifested among the Apaches. The old women of the tribe have all day filed in and out of the building at Fort Sill, where the remains are being held in state, groaning, weeping and praying, while the Apache braves, dry-eyed and sorrow-stricken, have stood without, watching silently the grief of the women.

Nivo, the only surviving wife of the chief, is prostrated. As soon as she learned of the death it required the strong efforts of the other Indians

Geronimo and 340 redskins were taken prisoners of war by Gen. Nelson A. Miles on Sept. 3, 1887, at Skeleton Canyon, Ariz., and deported to Florida, where they remained two years thence to Alabama for five years, and finally located permanently at Fort Sill under military restraint.
Four years ago the Apaches, after many councils, by ballot elected Asa, son of Whoa and friend and official interpreter of Geronimo, to succeed the once honored leader as chief.
Geronimo at that time was believed to be too aged and feeble to stand the strain that was constantly required.
New brains were essential, and since Asa's selection a great stride for betterment is felt among the tribe.

orably sale of Ada's bonds. It is related that it has taken the cities of Durant and Hugo twice the time to sell their utility bonds, and that when sold, they were compelled to sell on a basis not nearly as favorable as has this city.

Last Monday night at the meeting of the city council, when the subject of the sale of Ada's bonds was under earnest discussion by its members, the News man most respectfully inquired of the city council the reason of the presumed fact that this city was experiencing such delay in securing satisfactory disposition for her bonds at par value, when it did appear through press reports from various cities over the state that such cities were not only securing ready purchase of their bonds, but in some instances securing purchases at a premium, when indeed and in fact, these same cities were not more substantial than our own city.

The city council courteously received and considered the remarks made

CONGRATULATIONS EDGAR.

In a little pleasant, social letter received from Edgar Ratliff, our state representative, since his return to his legislative duties from Texas, where he had been called to exercise the joyful responsibility of extending a welcome into the world of a sweet baby girl, this good old boy goes on to facetiously remark that though the dear child looks like its dad, he is afraid she cannot ever sit in the legislature since the apparent distance of the prevalence of woman's suffrage.

The News extends heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Hon. Ratliff.

JOHN TULLIS GONE.

The fellows all, business citizens and politicians, will doubtless miss John Tullis, for the past year the News city editor and advertising manager.

Mr. Tullis has reported for new fields of endeavor. There appears to be in prospect for him a leading position on a promising new state publication.

The News' sincerest best wishes follow you, John, but you are warned not to rifle with the government.

COME TO ADA.

A young couple over at Bristow ran over to Sapulpa to get married the irate father of the bride wired the county judge not to issue license as the girl was too young. They skipped down to Ada and were married. Thus does love laugh at the telegrams.—Enid Waive-Democrat.

It was a good skip any way. Doctor for Ada is a darling place in which to get married. Pontotoc's handsome county judge will declare as much.

THE COLONELS TREAT.

Col. George Thompson, the old reliable Pontotoc democratic chairman struck the News editor yesterday and got right after him for not calling a meeting of the city democrats so that the party's voice could be heard regarding the feasibility of holding a democratic primary.

Says the editor to Colonel George, "Why in the mischief should I call a meeting you old democratic boss. Call it yourself."

Says Colonel George, "Well dad blaze it, you are the president of the city democratic club and why shouldn't you call the meeting?"

"But Colonel," returned the News man, "Withal the implied honor, you are mistaken, most assuredly for I never could have forgotten should I have been elected club president."

The treats are on the Colonel who continues to declare he is right and since there is going to be a democratic club meeting after all tonight, the county chairman will have to make a speech.

Woman's Methods That Aroused Wonder and Admiration.

"If I had my wife's head and nerve I'd own half of Wall street in less than five years," said the man. "It is the way she manages the clothes proposition that aroused me to wonder and admiration. Here is an example of her thrift."

"Early last month she bought a broadcloth dress which, with the extra charge for alterations, cost $55. Well, after she got the suit home she didn't like it. The store objected at first to taking it back, but her persuasive tongue won them over, and after deducting $5 for the alterations, they refunded the money. Last week, when nosing around, she saw that same suit on sale for $35. My wife, it seems, has such a peculiar figure that the suit, after being made to fit her wouldn't fit anybody else, so there was that $50 garment, and cheap at the price, going for almost one-third off. She of course snatched up the bargain. No more fitting or making over was necessary, so even when counting in her $5 for alterations, she saved $15 on the deal. I'd just like you to show me any man who could count out that well on a transaction in clothes."

CUSTOM PUZZLED THE VISITOR.

Wedding Ring Arrangement That Englishman Thought Queer.

"Of all your queer American customs," said the Englishman, "and you have many, you know—oh, yes, very many—the queerest is that of the oldest daughter of the first marriage of a woman who has been married twice wearing her mother's first wedding ring."

"How is that?" said the American woman. "That sounds rather complicated. I am afraid I didn't just catch it."

The Englishman repeated.

"In the two weeks that I have been in New York," he elucidated still further, "I have met four maiden ladies of 35 to 45 years of age who wore wedding rings. I asked for an explanation, and each time I found that it was the ring with which the lady's father married her mother. When the mother married again she gave the ring to her oldest daughter. Don't you think that queer?"

"I certainly do," said the American woman, "still I can't believe that it is a national custom or I should have heard of it before."—New York Press.

Lived Long as Hermit.

There has been discovered in the Australian "bush" or forests a wild Irishman, who had been leading a hermit life for a quarter century. He was of gigantic stature and enormous strength—a good advertisement for vegetarianism, as he had not touched animal food since his retirement from civilization. His hair was four feet long, matted and of considerable thickness. He told the police he was a follower of Christ, Samson and Hercules. His name is John Bernard Fitzgerald and he is 72 years of age. He has never bathed, regarding the practice as irreligious and unnatural. The combined force of half a dozen police, however, compelled him to overcome his scruples.

Paid for Bride by the Pound.

In the village of Kolked, in Hungary, it has since time immemorial been customary for the bridegroom to give the bride's parents some compensation before the wedding. The other day a peasant farmer named Kotvoes and the parents of his pretty young betrothed could not come to terms as to the amount, and so they agreed to make the mayor arbitrator. That good man, a cattle dealer, valued the bride at 60 cents a pound. As she weighed 86 pounds the happy bridegroom had to pay only $51.60, and thought himself lucky to get a wife so cheap.

Chemical Formulas.

In chemistry the elements are represented by accepted abbreviations, called symbols, each of which indicates a single atom of the element. When more than one atom is to be represented, figures are placed to the right of the symbol either above or below the line. A molecule representing a compound is indicated by a series of such symbols called a formula; thus alcohol has for its formula C₂H₆O, which shows that a molecule of this substance contains two atoms of carbon, six of hydrogen and one of oxygen.

Breaking the Rule.

"At our establishment," said the merchant, "we are training our employees to say 'Good-morning,' or 'Good-afternoon' at the telephone, instead of 'Hello.'"

"How does it work?"
"It works very well, indeed. Seems to please our customers and gives the establishment an air of dignity. The only trouble we have is with me. I'm the president, you know, and I forget. There's nobody to jog my memory nor call me down. Otherwise it works all right."

The Value of Politeness.

Hollow trees are always the stiffest, but the mightiest oak, it is found, can bend. The more exalted a man is by station, the more powerful should he be by kindness. There is no policy like politeness, since a good manner often succeeds where the best tongue has failed. Politeness is most useful to inspire confidence in the timid and encourage the deserving.—The Sunday Strand.

IT TAKES FORTUNES TO WIN THE SENATE

THE TRUTH OF WHICH HAS BEEN EXEMPLIFIED IN OUR OKLAHOMA.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 17.—Three United States senatorial aspirations today appeared before the Wisconsin legislative committee, which is investigating the senatorial primary election of last fall, and informed the committee as to details in the expenditure of many thousands of dollars.

Samuel A. Cook, of Neenah, while his official statement showed that he spent only $28,500, admitted that a supplemental statement would show that belated bills would bring his expenditures to above $40,000. Mr. Cook was asked by the committee if he thought a candidate for senator could spend $100,000 legitimately in a senatorial campaign and he replied that twice that amount could be easily spent.

Neal Brown of Wausau, the democratic nominee, testified to having parted, with $1,075.87, in what he termed a "poverty" campaign. He made his own campaign.

William H. Hatton said his total expenses were $26,613.08 and later added $3,668.90 for bills which came in later.

Memorial Service.

A very impressive Francis Willard memorial service was held Wednesday evening at the Methodist church. The W. C. T. U. had charge of the service, Mrs. G. T. Howerton, presiding.

The meeting opened with the entire audience joining in "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." After appropriate scripture reading by Rev. C. C. Barnhardt, Rev. D. J. Austin led in prayer.

Mrs. Howerton, president, read a paper, clearly setting forth the object of the Francis Willard Memorial Fund.

A splendid paper was read by Mrs. R. E. Haynes on "Why We Belong to the W. C. T. U."

The audience was intensely interested in Mrs. R. O. Wheeler's relation of Miss Willard's first visit to the Middle West. Mrs. Wheeler also reviewed the recent prohibitory legislation in Tennessee.

In his impressive, logical manner, Rev. D. J. Austin told of the needs of Oklahoma today.

The program was interspersed with good music. A duet by L. T. Walters and Mrs. Shanafelt; solo by Miss Gertrude Thompson and two selections by the trio, Messrs. Walters, Boman and Haley.

The memorial fund was enlarged by a free will offering from a number present.

Rev. W. M. Wilson offered the closing prayer.

Famous Minstrels Tonight.

Richards & Pringle's Famous Minstrels will appear at Ada opera house tonight.

This announcement is usually sufficient in itself to pack the theater without further comment.

If newspaper critics are good judges, it's a great show these dusky sons of Ham are giving this year.

In addition to the beautiful new First Part, "The Meeting of the Alumni," there are eight big vaudeville acts. Prominent among which are Craig, the medical mystery of two continents, Cooper, the black Napoleon of Ventriloquism, Moore, an European artist, that will spring a great surprise, a choral cast of twenty singers from Dixieland, and a big singing and dancing sextette.

Revival Begins.

Next Sunday begins the revival at Asbury Methodist church. Services Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7:30 and every night during the week. You are requested to pray, invited to attend, and urged to work for the salvation of one soul.

CARMACK KILLING

CONSPIRACY RESULT

STATE SHOWS DEFENDANTS HELD CONFERENCE BEFORE THE CRIME WAS COMMITTED.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 17.—Marked by bitter quarrels between attorneys and by new and startling testimony, the second day of the Cooper-Sharpe trial for the murder of former Senator E. W. Carmack, closed tonight with the state highly elated and the defense apparently perturbed.

There were three star witnesses for for the state—all women. Miss Mary Skeffington, the state librarian, told how on the day of the murder, when within 200 feet of the scene of the shooting, she met John Sharpe, one of the defendants, whom she had known for ten or twelve years. Just as she greeted him, she heard three shots and asked Sharpe what it meant. Without turning around to learn, Sharpe replied, she says, that "Dunc Cooper is shooting Senator Carmack."

By Miss Daisy Lee, stenographer in the office of Robin Cooper and John Bradford an attorney for the defense, the state laid the foundation upon which it will base its contention that the slaying of Carmack was the result of a conspiracy.

Miss Lee said on the day of the tragedy when she arrived at the office, she found Cooper already there in conference with his son. She heard the older Cooper scold the younger man for using his (Cooper's) name and declare he had a right to protect himself. Later she heard Col. Cooper apply to Carmack epithets so vile that she cried when ordered to repeat them. The court permitted her to write them and when they were read she covered her face with her hands.

It appeared to be the intention of the state to have the jury believe that a conference to slay Carmack was held and that the killing resulted from this conference.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 14th, NORTH ADA BAPTIST CHURCH.

It snowed. The wind was quite cold and from the north. Temperature here was hovering about 7 above. Good time to sit by the fire. Plenty cold to have an excuse not to go to Sunday school and preaching. I am quite sure several of you had it, and used it. There were few out at our little church, but glad to tell you there were a few. And we had a fine time. Seemed the new house looked more comfortable and cozy than I had ever seen it. All who were there I am sure felt glad that Pastor Austin finished repairing the "house of the Lord" before he resigned to become editor of The Oklahoma Baptist Journal. It was so "nice and comfortable." A good fire was in the stove and we hardly knew the wind was blowing cold on the outside. Then we had a GOOD lesson. If you did not study that lesson, dear reader, you missed a good chance. We stressed the following points:

1. IN PRISON. Class decided a PRISON may be one of IGNORANCE. Really more in that prison than one would think. This is an age of great intellectual activity, and yet IGNORANCE stalks abroad on every hand. Thousands are imprisoned by that dense wall, IGNORANCE. Second, the prison may be NARROWNESS. In this sense the men who put the apostles in prison were themselves in a worse PRISON. They were a small, narrow class. Learned? Oh yes, for LEARNING does not necessarily remove narrowness. The Sadducees were narrow, but the Pharisees were narrower. Third, a PRISON wall may be of PREJUDICE. In this prison again our Sanhedrin were incarcerated. Prejudice imprisons thousands of us. We build our own thick walls of prejudice and prefer to remain in prison. Fourth, the non-believer is in prison. A dark and dangerous prison he lives in. And thus we went on in that class thinking of the PRISONS that may inclose human souls.

2. DELIVERED BY ANGELS. Class brought out: Angels are messengers of God. Angels work in the dark of night. Angels can not be seen by those on the outside, as the guard at the door knew not the apostles were delivered. Angels speak to those who are ready to hear. Angels are here in this world at work night and day.

3. THE MESSAGE. Go. That is a great message. Go! But that was not all, or half. Go, stand and PREACH. Preach to the PEOPLE. Preach ALL the words of THIS LIFE. A real, present LIFE. That was a real, present, angelic, MISSIONARY sermon.

4. THEY WENT EARLY. Revised Version says at break of day. They obeyed at once. The angel told them where to go, and what to do, and they found a time. The time was NOW. They also found an audience. Many a preacher has missed his audience by being too late. I have seen an audience wait long for the preacher. This audience did not have to wait.

The preachers were there early. On time! On time!

6. THE COOL HEADED GAMALIEL. GOD RATHER THAN MEN. The first great sermon on RELIGIOUS LIBERTY. Baptist preachers ever since this first sermon by Peter have been stressing religious liberty. We must obey God. Necessity is upon us.

6. THE COOL HEADED GAMALIEL. One right thinking, reasonable man may save the day. Words fitly spoken are as apples of gold. A quiet answer turneth away wrath. Gamaliel made a great speech. He was an orator. No wonder he was "honored by all the people." Fine old character. It was a reasonable argument he made. It had its effect on even an unreasonable court.

7. EVERY DAY, IN THE TEMPLE AND FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE THEY PREACHED. The stripes hindered not the Glad Tidings. They continued to preach every day. Day by day. From house to house. Also in the TEMPLE. Fine lesson this. Yes, it was a cold day, but it was a fine Sunday school lesson. "You can not afford to miss the Sunday school, even though it rains, or is cold."

CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL LIBEL

PULITZER AND OTHER GREAT EDITORS TO BE ARRESTED.

ECHO OF PANAMA CANAL DEAL

Publishers of New York World and Indianapolis News Indicted by Federal Jury.

Washington Feb. 17.—Bench warrants were issued today for the arrest of Joseph Pulitzer, Cable M. Van Henna and Robert H. Lyman of New York, proprietors and editors of the New York World, and for Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams owners of the Indianapolis News, for criminal libel in connection with the publication of charges of irregularities in the purchase of the Panama canal by the United States from the French owners.

The indictments were returned today by the United States grand jury sitting in this city. The warrants are directed against all five of the natural defendants of the two newspapers. The summons requires the corporate defendant (the Press Publishing Company) to appear in court forthwith.

Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, Elihu Root, J. Pierpont Morgan, Charles P. Taft, Douglas Robinson and William Nelson Cromwell are named in the indictments as the persons alleged to have been defamed by the stories.

Hot Shot for President in the New York World.

In a statement issued tonight, the World says in part:

"This prosecution, if it succeeds, will place every newspaper in the country which circulates in Washington and the law of importance which will be the result of the prosecution of an individual who is willing to sacrifice his personal safety for the maintenance of his personal rights."

Mr. Roosevelt is now, as a great patriot, is president to exploit his political machine. These libel proceedings have no other object than to enable Mr. Roosevelt to employ the machinery of the United States government to satisfy his personal desire for revenge. We say this reluctantly, but we say it without qualification, because it is true. Mr. Roosevelt is an episode. The World is an institution."

HIP, HURRAH! ADA'S BONDS ARE SOLD

Brings the Cash; Big Public Work To Start Soon.

There was general rejoicing among the members of the city council this morning when intelligence was received from Bolger Company Bond Bankers at Chicago, that it would be agreeable to pay the cash for $71,500.00 of Ada's public utility bond issue. These bond bankers state that their attorneys have passed favorably upon the legality of the issue of such amount of Ada's bonds and that as soon as the proper and regular proceedings attendant to the conclusion of a bond deal had been consummated, that the money would be forthcoming.

City attorney Holt is in the possession of entire instructions relative to the required procedure and now it is known beyond peradventure, that when the city council has concluded its session next Monday night, that there will then only be required the publication of an ordinance to comply with all the prerequisites essential to the securing of $71,500.00 in money.

The Ada public will doubtless be gratified with the information that the city council can now go before the contracting world with an absolutely cash proposition in payment for the construction of all the proposed public improvements in this city.

Referring that on today's session, referring to the promise made the public in the last issue of this paper, that on today there would be announced the proposal of contractor Lundsten and city engineer Stokes, to take the entire issue of Ada's utility bonds, provided they should be awarded two contracts to do the work it will of course, occur to our readers that the proposals outlined by these gentlemen will be of no interest or value at this time, since the only way that they could possibly set in on the contract now, would be their ability to make good as the lowest and best bidders against the contracting world.

The city council of Ada is to be congratulated by the Ada public for having consummated, under all the circumstances, such an early and favorable sale of Ada's bonds. It is related that it has taken the cities of Durant and Hugo twice the time to sell their utility bonds, and that when sold, they were compelled to sell on a basis not nearly as favorable as has this city.

Last Monday night at the meeting of the city council, when the subject of the sale of Ada's bonds was under earnest discussion by its members, the News man most respectfully inquired of the city council the reason of the presumed fact that this city was experiencing such delay in securing satisfactory disposition for her bonds at par value, when it did appear through press reports from various cities over the state that such cities were not only securing ready purchase of their bonds, but in some instances securing purchases at a premium, when indeed and in fact, these same cities were not more substantial than our own city.

The city council courteously received and considered the remarks made by the News man and it was the declaration of each member that, undoubtedly, the press dispatchers from these other cities which had previously secured sale for their bonds were evidently founded upon misapprehension, or else directed with purpose of deception.

Adam Beck, president of the Oklahoma Portland Cement Company, who is very well versed indeed with the manner and detail operations of bond sales, the conditions in general of bond markets, etc., was present at the council meeting, and made the following very satisfactory explanation. Mr. Beck said in substance: "Naturally, press reports from any good city relating to such city's credit, would make as favorable showing as possible, and it is probably true that, as a rule, it appeared that the cities to which press reports referred, did, on its face, sell their bonds at par or even above par value. Since, though the sale of cement to a large number of contractors who are engaged in the work of public utility construction, within the various cities in the southwest, I am absolutely informed that practically, without exception, these boasted advantageous bond sales are generally no more of less than the exchange of bonds at the face value of whatever they care to name with reputable contractors in return for the construction of the utilities at an agreed price."

Mr. Beck further stated that it was very unusual during the past two years that bond sales had been made at even par value, when cash in hand was required. He suggested at the time, or later, that he considered such proposition as outlined by contractor Lundsten as entirely reasonable. "Of course," said he, "it would be more satisfactory to the city should a cash sale be consummated."

The News mentions the above merely to attest the fact that the city council of Ada has been very diligent in the performance of its duties, and that the citizens generally may well interchange congratulations that a cash sale at such a premium above par value has been consummated. Wherein the bonds only sold at par, still, considering the accrued interests which will probably amount to more than a thousand dollars by this time, and the further fact that the bond buyers contracted all the expense incidental to all legal proceedings required to secure the proper presentation of the bonds, the printing of the same, etc., the city may feel that its trust has been well placed.

ADA LOSES DURANT WINS

Guthrie, Okla., Feb. 18.—Special to News 4:15 P. M.—Ada has met the enemy and she is there. Durant won over Ada for state normal into this afternoon at the vote of Durant, 60 and Ada 41.

Durant secured 28 republican votes and Ada 10. C. G. Jones, Ada's boasted republican friend, voted with Durant. It was a straight proposition of the republicans lining up with the insurgents to defeat the House organization.

There is no fear whatever that the bill favoring Durant can get through the Senate since that democratic body will, under no circumstances, accept the House measure for which the republicans are responsible.

Ada will await, with interest, the detailed story from her prominent citizens at Guthrie of the whys and wherefores of Durant's cleaning upon Ada.

Lawton, Ok., Feb. 17.—After passing through many struggles for his life in bloody battle with Mexicans and United States citizens and soldiers and for twenty-two years a prisoner of war, for the most part upon the Fort Sill military reservation, Geronimo, the famous war chief of the Apaches, 80 years old, succumbed to pneumonia at 5:45 o'clock this morning in the military hospital.

His illness was of less than a week's duration and he was in a critical condition for only about forty-eight hours.

The death of Geronimo has cast a gloom throughout the entire reservation, and, although he had enemies in his tribe during life, they return to mourn at the hour of his death.

As a warrior and General Geronimo had few equals and his career of forty years of blood-thirsty savagery kept the country in continual terror. He never lost hope until the very last moment, still retaining that great will power which caused him often to meet victory.

He said that he would not die until his two children, Eva and Robert, 16 and 19 years old, respectively, who are attending school at the Chilocco Indian School, should arrive at his bedside.

Funeral This Afternoon.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, with the rites of a Christian burial under the direction of Rev. Legsters, the old chief will be put to rest in the Indian burying ground, north-east of Fort Sill near his own home. Great grief is manifested among the Apaches. The old women of the tribe have all day filled in and out of the building at Fort Sill where the remains are being held in state, groaning, weeping and praying, while the Apache braves, dry-eyed and sorrow-stricken, have stood without, watching silently the grief of the women.

Niva, the only surviving wife of the chief, is prostrated. As soon as she learned of the death it required the strong efforts of the other Indians

Geronimo and 310 redskins were taken prisoners of war by Gen. Nelson A. Miles on Sept. 3, 1887, at Skeleton Canyon, Ariz., and deported to Florida, where they remained two years thence to Alabama for five years, and finally located permanently at Fort Sill under military restraint.

Four years ago the Apaches, after many councils, by ballot elected Asa, son of Whoa and friend and official interpreter of Geronimo, to succeed the once honored leader as chief.

Geronimo at that time was believed to be too aged and feeble to stand the strain that was constantly required.

New brains were essential, and since Asa's selection a great stride for betterment is felt among the tribe.

CONGRATULATIONS EDGAR.

In a little pleasant, social letter received from Edgar Ratliff, our state representative since his return to his legislative duties from Texas, where he had been called to exercise the joyful responsibility of extending a welcome into the world of a sweet baby girl this good old boy goes on to facetiously remark that though the dear child looks like its dad, he is afraid she cannot ever sit in the legislature since the apparent distance of the prevalence of woman's suffrage

Woman's Methods That Aroused Wonder and Admiration

"If I had my wife's head and nerve I'd own half of Wall street in less than five years," said the man. It is the way she manages the clothes proposition that aroused me to wonder and admiration. Here is an example of her thrift

Early last month she bought a broadcloth dress which with the extra change for alterations cost $35. Well after she got the suit home she didn't like it. The store objected at first to taking it back but her persuasive tongue won them over and after deducting $5 for the alterations, they refunded the money. Last week when nosing around she saw that same suit on sale for $35. My wife it seems has such a peculiar figure that the suit after being made to fit her wouldn't fit anybody else so there was that $50 garment and cheap at the price going for almost one third off. She of course snatched up the bargain. No more fidgeting or making over was necessary so even when counting in her $5 for alterations she saved $15 on the deal. I'd just like you to show me any man who could copy out that wall on a transaction in clothes

Wedding Ring Arrangement That Englishman Thought Queer

"Of all your queer American customs," said the Englishman and you have many you know—oh yes very many—the queerest is that of the old-fashioned marriage of a woman who has been married twice wearing her mother's first wedding ring

How is that? said the American woman. That sounds rather complicated. I am afraid I didn't just catch it

The Englishman repeated:

In the two weeks that I have been in New York, he elucidated still further. I have met four maiden ladies of 35 to 45 years of age who wore wedding rings. I asked for an explanation, and each time I found that it was the ring with which the lady's father married her mother. When the mother married again she gave the ring to her oldest daughter. Don't you think that queer?

"I certainly do," said the American woman, still I can't believe that it is a national custom or I should have heard of it before.—New York Press

Lived Long as Hermit

There has been discovered in the Australian bush or forests a wild Irishman who had been leading a hermit life for a quarter century. He was of gigantic stature and enormous strength—a good advertisement for vegetarianism as he had not touched animal food since his retirement from civilization. His hair was four feet long matted and of considerable thickness. He told the police he was a follower of Christ Simon and Heracles. His name is John Bernard Fitzgerald and he is 72 years of age. He has never been married and the police have been unable to find out how he lived. The combined force of half a dozen police had to be called in to overcome his strength

Paid for Bride by the Pound

In the village of Kolked in Hungary it has since time immemorial been customary for the bridegroom to give the bride's parents so much compensation before the wedding. The other day a peasant farmer named Kotroves and the parents of his daughter had other things to come to so they agreed to make the mayor arbitrate. That good man, a cattle dealer, valued the bride at 80 cents a pound. As she weighed 88 pounds the happy bride's room had to pay only $51.60 and thought himself lucky to get a wife so cheap

Chemical Formulas

In chemistry the elements are represented by accepted abbreviations called symbols each of which indicates a single atom of the element. When more than one atom is to be represented figures are placed to the right of the symbol either above or below the line. A molecule representing a compound is indicated by a series of such symbols called a formula. Thus alcohol has for its formula C₂H₅OH which shows that a molecule of this substance contains two atoms of carbon six of hydrogen and one of oxygen

Breaking the Rule

"At our establishment," said the merchant, we are training our employees to say Good morning or Good afternoon at the telephone instead of 'Hello'

How does it work?

"It works very well indeed. Seems to please our customers and gives the establishment an air of dignity. The only trouble we have is with me. I'm the president, you know and I forget. There's nobody to jog my memory nor call me down. Otherwise it works all right"

The Value of Politeness.

Hollow trees are always the stiffest, but the mightiest oak it is found, can bend. That more exalted a man is by station the more powerful should he be by kindness. There is no policy like politeness since a good manner often succeeds where the best tongue has failed. Politeness is most useful to inspire confidence in the timid and encourage the deserving.—The Sunday Strand

IT TAKES FORTUNES TO WIN THE SENATE

THE TRUTH OF WHICH HAS BEEN EXEMPLIFIED IN OUR OKLAHOMA.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 17.—Three United States senatorial aspirations today appeared before the Wisconsin legislative committee, which is investigating the senatorial primary election of last fall and informed the committee as to details in the expenditure of many thousands of dollars in later

Samuel A. Cook of Neenah, while his official statement showed that he spent only $28,500 admitted that a supplemental statement would show that belated bills would bring his expenditures to above $40,000. Mr. Cook was asked by the committee if he thought a candidate for senator could spend $100,000 legitimately in a senatorial campaign and he replied that twice that amount could be easily spent

Neal Brown of Wausau, the democratic nominee, testified to having parted with $1,075.87, in what he termed a "poverty" campaign. He made his own campaign

William H. Hutton said his total expenses were $26,613.08 and later added $3,668.90 for bills which came in later

CARMACK KILLING CONSPIRACY RESULT

STATE SHOWS DEFENDANT'S HELD CONFERENCE BEFORE THE CRIME WAS COMMITTED.

Nashville Tenn Feb 17—Marred by bitter quarrels between attorneys and by new and startling testimony, the second day of the Cooper-Sharpe trial for the murder of former Senator E W Carmack, closed tonight with the state highly elated and the defense apparently perturbed.

There were three star witnesses for the state—all women. Miss Mary Skerfington the state librarian, told how on the day of the murder, when within 200 feet of the scene of the shooting, she met John Sharpe, one of the defendants whom she had known for ten or twelve years. Just as she greeted him, she heard three shots and asked Sharpe what it meant. Without turning around to learn Sharpe replied she says that Duke Cooper is shooting Senator Carmack.

By Miss Daisy Lee stenographer of the office of Robin Cooper and John Bradford an attorney for the defense the state laid the foundation upon which it will base its contention that the slaying of Carmack was the result of a conspiracy.

Miss Lee said on the day of the tragedy when she arrived at the office she found Cooper already there in conference with his son. She heard the older Cooper scold the younger man for using his (Cooper's) name and declare he had a right to protect himself. Later she heard Col Cooper apply to Carmack (phrased so vile that she tried when ordered to repeat them. The court permitted her to write them and when they were read she covered her face with her hands.

It appeared to be the intention of the state to have the jury believe that a conference to slay Carmack was held and that the killing resulted from this conference.

"93" HAIR TONIC

Our faith in the superior remedial qualities of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we promise to return your money—without question or quibble—if it does not do what we claim it will.

Because it contains Resorcin, Beta Naphthol, Pilocarpin, Borax, Glycerin and Alcohol in perfect combination, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic provides the softening, cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal, stimulating and nourishing properties, so desirable and necessary for the successful treatment of scalp and hair troubles.

If used according to directions for a reasonable length of time, we are absolutely positive that it will thoroughly cleanse the scalp and hair, relieve irritation, eradicate dandruff, stimulate the hair follicles and papilla, revitalize and nourish the hair roots, stop falling hair, prevent baldness, promote hair growth and make the hair naturally soft and silky.

You must realize that we would not dare back up our claims with such a liberal offer unless we were positive that we can substantiate our statements in every particular, and the most skeptical person should at least be willing to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk.

The preachers were there early. On time! On time!

6. THE COOL HEADED GAMAL-OBREY GOD RATHER THAN MEN. The first great sermon on RELIGIOUS LIBERTY. Baptist preachers ever since this first sermon by Peter have been stressing religious liberty. We must obey God. Necessity is upon us.

6. THE COOL HEADED GAMAL-IEL. One right thinking, reasonable man may save the day. Words fifty spoken are as apples of gold. A quiet answer turneth away wrath. Gamaliel made a great speech. He was an orator. No wonder he was "honored by all the people." Fine old character. It was a reasonable argument he made. It had its effect on even an unreasonable court.

7. EVERY DAY, IN THE TEMPLE AND FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE THEY PREACHED. The stripes hindered not the Glad Tidings. They continued to preach every day. Day by day. From house to house. Also in the TEMPLE. Fine lesson this. Yes, it was a cold day, but it was a fine Sunday school lesson. You can not afford to miss the Sunday school even though it rains, or is cold.

ADA, OKLAHOMA, THURSDAY EVENING

NUMBER 280

CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL LIBEL

PULITZER AND OTHER GREAT EDITORS TO BE ARRESTED.

ECHO OF PANAMA CANAL DEAL

Publishers of New York World and Indianapolis News Indicted by Federal Jury.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Bench warrants were issued today for the arrest of Joseph Pulitzer, Cable M. Van Henna and Robert H. Lyman of New York, proprietors and editors of the New York World, and for Delavan Smith and Charles R. Williams owners of the Indianapolis News, for criminal libel in connection with the publication of charges of irregularities in the purchase of the Panama canal by the United States from the French owners.

The indictments were returned today by the United States grand jury sitting in this city. The warrants are directed against all five of the natural defendants of the two newspapers. The summons requires the corporate defendant (the Press Publishing Company) to appear in court forthwith.

Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, Elihu Root, J. Pierpont Morgan, Charles P. Taft, Douglas Robinson and William Nelson Cromwell are named in the indictments as the persons alleged to have been libeled by the stories.

Hot Shot for President in the New York World.

In a statement issued tonight, the World says in part:

"This prosecution, if it succeeds, will place every newspaper in the country which circulates in Washington and the use of its portents which are the property of an American citizen, who is willing to sacrifice his personal safety for the maintenance of his personal duty."

Mr. Roosevelt is now assuming his great position as president to exploit his political power. These libel proceedings have no other object than to enable Mr. Roosevelt to employ the machinery of the United States government to satisfy his personal desire for revenge. We say this reluctantly, but we say it without qualification, because it is true. Mr. Roosevelt is an episode. The World is an institution."

Brings the Cash; Big Public Work To Start Soon.

There was general rejoicing among the members of the city council this morning when intelligence was received from Bolger Company Bond Bankers at Chicago, that it would be agreeable to pay the cash for $71,500.00 of Ada's public utility bond issue. These bond bankers state that their attorneys have passed favorably upon the legality of the issue of such amount of Ada's bonds and that as soon as the proper and regular proceedings attendant to the conclusion of a bond deal had been consummated, that the money would be forthcoming.

City attorney Holt is in the possession of entire instructions relative to the required procedure and now it is known beyond peradventure, that when the city council has concluded its session next Monday night, that there will then only be required the publication of an ordinance to comply with all the prerequisites essential to the securing of $71,500.00 in money.

The Ada public will doubtless be gratified with the information that the city council can now go before the contracting world with an absolutely cash proposition in payment for the construction of all the proposed public improvements in this city.

Referring that on today's sale of the bonds, the city council will be paid in full the entire sum of $71,500.00, the city council will be able to proceed with the construction of all the proposed public improvements in this city.

Referring that on today's sale of the bonds, the city council will be paid in full the entire sum of $71,500.00, the city council will be able to proceed with the construction of all the proposed public improvements in this city.

The city council of Ada is to be congratulated by the Ada public for having consummated, under all the circumstances, such an early and favorable sale of Ada's bonds. It is related that it has taken the cities of Durant and Hugo twice the time to sell their utility bonds, and that when sold, they were compelled to sell on a basis not nearly as favorable as has this city.

Last Monday night at the meeting of the city council when the subject of the sale of Ada's bonds was under earnest discussion by its members, the News man most respectfully inquired of the city council the reason of the pre-announced fact that this city was experiencing such delay in securing satisfactory disposition for her bonds at par value, when it did appear through press reports from various cities over the state that such cities were not only securing ready purchase of their bonds, but in some instances securing purchases at a premium, when indeed in fact, these same cities were not more substantial than our own city.

The city council courteously received and considered the remarks made by the News man and it was the declaration of each member that, undoubtedly, the press dispatchers from these other cities which had previously secured sale for their bonds were evidently founded upon misapprehension, or else directed with purpose of deception.

Adam Beck, president of the Oklahoma Portland Cement Company, who is very well versed indeed with the manner and detail operations of bond sales, the conditions in general of bond markets, etc., was present at the council meeting, and made the following very satisfactory explanation. Mr. Beck said in substance: "Naturally, press reports from any good city relating to such city's credit, would make as favorable showing as possible, and it is probably true that, as a rule, it appeared that the cities to which press reports referred, did, on its face, sell their bonds at par or even above par value. Since, though the sale of cement to a large number of contractors who are engaged in the work of public utility construction, within the various cities in the southwest, I am absolutely informed that practically, without exception, these boasted advantageous bond sales are generally no more than the exchange of the bonds at the face value of whatever they care to name with reputable contractors in return for the construction of the utilities at an agreed price."

Mr. Beck further stated that it was very unusual during the past two years that bond sales had been made at even par value, when cash in hand was required for the purchase of the bonds, or later, that he considered such proposition as outlined by contractor Lundsten as entirely reasonable. "Of course," said he, "it would be more satisfactory to the city should a cash sale be consummated."

The News mentions the above merely to attest the fact that the city council of Ada has been very diligent in the performance of its duties, and that the citizens generally may well interchange congratulations that a cash sale at such a premium above par value has been consummated. Wherein the bonds only sold at par, still, considering the accrued interests which will probably amount to more than a thousand dollars by this time, and the further fact that the bond buyers contracted all the expense incidental to all legal proceedings required to secure the proper presentation of the bonds, the printing of the same, etc., the city may feel that its trust has been well placed.

Ada will await, with interest, the detailed story from her prominent citizens at Guthrie of the whys and wherefores of Durant's cleaning upon Ada.

ADA LOSES DURANT WINS

Guthrie, Okla., Feb. 18.—Special to News 4:15 P. M.—Ada has met the enemy and she is theirs. Durant won over Ada for state normal into this afternoon at the vote of Durant, 60 and Ada 41.

Durant secured 28 republican votes and Ada 16. C. C. Jones, Ada's honest republican friend, voted with Durant. It was a straight proposition of the republicans lining up with the insurgents to defeat the House organization.

There is no fear whatever that the bill favoring Durant can get through the Senate since that democratic body will, under no circumstances, accept the House measure for which the republicans are responsible.

Ada will await, with interest, the detailed story from her prominent citizens at Guthrie of the whys and wherefores of Durant's cleaning upon Ada.

Lawson, Ok., Feb. 17.—After passing through many struggles for his life in bloody battle with Mexicans and United States citizens and soldiers and for twenty-two years a prisoner of war, for the most part upon the Fort Sill military reservation, Geronimo, the famous war chief of the Apaches, 80 years old, succumbed to pneumonia at 5:45 o'clock this morning in the military hospital.

His illness was of less than a week's duration and he was in a critical condition for only about forty-eight hours.

The death of Geronimo has cast a gloom throughout the entire reservation, and, although he had enemies in his tribe during life, they return to mourn at the hour of his death.

As a warrior and General Geronimo had few equals and his career of forty years of blood-thirsty savagery kept the country in continual terror. He never lost hope until the very last moment, still retaining that great will power which caused him often to meet victory.

He said that he would not die until his two children, Eva and Robert, aged 19 years old, respectively, who are attending school at the Chilocco School, should arrive at his bedside.

Funeral This Afternoon.
Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the rites of a Christian burial under the direction of Rev. Loggester, the old chief will be put to rest in the Indian burying ground, north-east of Fair Hill, near his own home. Great grief is manifested among the Apaches. The old women of the tribe have all day filled in and out of the building at Fair Hill where the remains are being held in state, groaning, weeping and praying, while the Apache braves, dry-eyed and sorrow-stricken, have stood without, watching silently the grief of the women.

Nive, the only surviving wife of the chief, is prostrated. As soon as she learned of the death it required the strong efforts of the other Indians

Woman's Methods That Aroused Wonder and Admiration

If I had my wife's head and nerve I'd own half of Wall Street in less than five years. said the man. It is the way she manages the clothes proposition that aroused me to wonder and admiration. He is an example of her thrift

Early last month she bought a broadcloth dress which with the extra change for alterations cost $5. Well after she got the suit home she didn't like it. The store objected at first to taking it back but her persuasive tongue won them over and after deducting $5 for the alterations they refunded the money. Last week when nosing around she saw that same suit on sale for $35. My wife it seems has such a peculiar figure that the suit after being made to fit her wouldn't fit anybody else so there was that $30 garment and cheap at the price going for almost one third off. She of course snatched up the bargain. No more fitting or making over was necessary so even when counting in her $5 for alterations she saved $10 on the deal. I'd just like you to show me any man who could come out that well on a transaction in clothes

Wedding Ring Arrangement That Englishman Thought Queer

Of all you queer American customs said the Englishman and you have many von know—oh yes very many—the queerest is that of the old est daughter of the first marriage of a woman who has been married twice wearing her mother's first wedding ring

How is that? said the American woman. That sounds rather complicated. I am afraid I didn't just catch it

The Englishman repeated. In the two weeks that I have been in New York he elucidated still further. I have met four maiden ladies of 35 to 45 years of age who wore wedding rings. I asked for an explanation and each time I found that it was the ring with which the lady's father married her mother. When the mother married again she gave the ring to her oldest daughter. Don't you think that queer?

I certainly do said the American woman. Still I can't believe that it is a national custom or I should have heard of it before.—New York Press

Lived Long as Hermit

There has been discovered in the Australian bush or forests a wild Irishman who had been leading a hermit life for a quarter century. He was of gigantic stature and enormous strength—a good advertisement for vegetarianism as he had not touched animal food since his retirement from civilization. His hair was four feet long matted and of considerable thickness. He told the police he was a follower of Christ Simon and Hercules. His name is John Bernard Fitzgerald and he is 72 years of age. He has never been married and the practice of his religion and his isolation. The combination of half a dozen police officers failed him to overcome him

Paid for Bride by the Pound

In the village of Kildale in Ireland it has been time immemorial been customary for the bridegroom to give the bride a pound's worth of gold before the wedding. The other day a young man named Kotvoe, 18 years of age, his sister young lady who had not come to her 18th birthday and so they agreed to make the mayor a bride. That good man a little dealer valued the bride at 80 cents a pound. As she weighed 86 pounds the happy bridegroom had to pay only $51.60 and thought himself lucky to get a wife so cheap

Chemical Formulas

In chemistry the elements are represented by accepted abbreviations called symbols each of which indicates a single atom of the element. When more than one atom is to be represented figures are placed to the right of the symbol either above or below the line. A molecule representing a compound is indicated by a series of such symbols called a formula. Thus alcohol has for its formula C₂H₆O which shows that a molecule of this substance contains two atoms of carbon six of hydrogen and one of oxygen

The Value of Politeness

Hollow trees are always the stiffest, but the mightiest oak it is found can bend. That more exalted a man is by station the more powerful should he be by kindness. There is no policy like politeness since a good manner often succeeds where the best tongue has failed. Politeness is most useful to inspire confidence in the timid and encourage the despondent.—The Sunday Strand

IT TAKES FORTUNES TO WIN THE SENATE

THE TRUTH OF WHICH HAS BEEN EXEMPLIFIED IN OUR OKLAHOMA.

Madison Wis. Feb. 17.—Three United States senatorial aspirations today appeared before the Wisconsin legislative committee which is investigating the senatorial primary election of last fall and informed the committee as to details in the expenditure of many thousands of dollars

Samuel A. Cook of Neenah while his official statement showed that he spent only $28,500 admitted that a supplemental statement would show that belated bills would bring his expenditures to above $40,000. Mr. Cook was asked by the committee if he thought a candidate for senator could spend $100,000 legitimately in a senatorial campaign and he replied that twice that amount could be easily spent

Neal Brown of Wausau the democratic nominee testified to having parted with $107,877 in what he termed a poverty campaign. He made his own campaign

William H. Hatton said his total expenses were $26,613.08 and later added $3,668.90 for bills which came in later

Memorial Service.

A very impressive Francis Willard memorial service was held Wednesday evening at the Methodist church. The W. C. T. U. had charge of the service, Mrs. G. T. Howerton, presiding.

The meeting opened with the entire audience joining in "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." After appropriate scripture reading by Rev. C. C. Barnhardt, Rev. D. J. Austin led in prayer.

Mrs. Howerton, president, read a paper, clearly setting forth the object of the Francis Willard Memorial Fund.

A splendid paper was read by Mrs. R. E. Haynes on "Why We Belong to the W. C. T. U."

The audience was intensely interested in Mrs. R. O. Wheeler's relation of Miss Willard's first visit to the Middle West. Mrs. Wheeler also reviewed the recent prohibitory legislation in Tennessee.

In his impressive, logical manner, Rev. D. J. Austin told of the needs of Oklahoma today.

The program was interspersed with good music. A duet by L. T. Walters and Mrs. Shanafelt, solo by Miss Gertrude Thompson and two selections by the trio, Messrs. Walters, Boman and Haley.

The memorial fund was enlarged by a free will offering from a number present.

Rev. W. M. Wilson offered the closing prayer.

CARMACK KILLING CONSPIRACY RESULT

STATE SHOWS DEFENDANTS HELD CONFERENCE BEFORE THE CRIME WAS COMMITTED.

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 17.—Marked by bitter quarrels between attorneys and by new and startling testimony, the second day of the Cooper-Sharpe trial for the murder of former Senator E. W. Carmack, closed tonight with the state highly elated and the defense apparently perturbed.

There were three star witnesses for the state—all women. Miss Mary Skeffington, the state librarian, told how on the day of the murder, when within 200 feet of the scene of the shooting, she met John Sharpe, one of the defendants, whom she had known for ten or twelve years. Just as she greeted him, she heard three shots and asked Sharpe what it meant. Without turning around to learn, Sharpe replied, she says, that "Dunc Cooper is shooting Senator Carmack."

By Miss Daisy Lee, stenographer in the office of Robin Cooper and John Bradford an attorney for the defense, the state laid the foundation upon which it will base its contention that the slaying of Carmack was the result of a conspiracy.

Miss Lee said on the day of the tragedy when she arrived at the office, she found Cooper already there in conference with his son. She heard the older Cooper scold the younger man for using his (Cooper's) name and declare he had a right to protect himself. Later she heard Col. Cooper apply to Carmack epithets so vile that she cried when ordered to repeat them. The court permitted her to write them and when they were read she covered her face with her hands.

It appeared to be the intention of the state to have the jury believe that a conference to slay Carmack was held and that the killing resulted from this conference.

6. THE COOL HEADED GAMAL-OBEDY GOD RATHER THAN MEN. The first great sermon on RELIGIOUS LIBERTY. Baptist preachers ever since this first sermon by Peter have been stressing religious liberty. We must obey God. Necessity is upon us.

6. THE COOL HEADED GAMAL-IEL. One right thinking, reasonable man may save the day. Words richly spoken are as apples of gold. A quiet answer turneth away wrath. Gamaliel made a great speech. He was an orator. No wonder he was "honored by all the people." Fine old character. It was a reasonable argument he made. It had its effect on even an unreasonable court.

7. EVERY DAY IN THE TEMPLE AND FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE THEY PREACHED. The stripes hindered not the Glad Tidings. They continued to preach every day. Day by day. From house to house. Also in the TEMPLE. Fine lesson this. Yes, it was a cold day, but it was a fine Sunday school lesson. You can not afford to miss the Sunday school even though it rains, or is cold.
